NOTES

1. Each National People's Congress (NPC) determines the setup of its special committees, which work under its direction. The NPC also appoints the chairpersons (主任委员), vice chairpersons (副主任委员), and other members (委员) of the special committees—who are all NPC delegates.
2. When the NPC is not in session, the special committees work under the direction of the NPC Standing Committee (NPCSC), which may during such period appoint additional vice chairpersons and members of the special committees upon nominations by the Council of Chairmen. Some members of the special committees are also members of the NPCSC.
3. The NPC elects from its delegates members of the NPCSC, including the Chairman, Vice Chairpersons, Secretary General, and other members. The NPCSC reports to the NPC.
4. The Chairman, Vice Chairpersons, and Secretary General constitute the Council of Chairmen, which handles important day-to-day work of the NPCSC. The Chairman convenes sessions of the NPCSC.
5. The NPCSC appoints members of its working bodies upon nominations by the Chairman and appoints members of the Delegate Credentials Committee upon nominations by the Council of Chairmen. The General Office works under the direction of the Secretary General.
